Students' feedback:

- "The topics were the current hot topics of artificial intelligence and telecommuting, and the business content was practical, interesting, and fun to learn."
- "There were exercises where I could record my own voice and improve my pronunciation."
- "I was able to learn about my weak points in English conversation with the teacher when there were words I did not catch or did not know."
- "I was able to get feedback from the teacher before the end of the English conversation lesson, which helped me to review my English and to keep me motivated to improve."

English Peer-Tutoring

One-on-one English lessons by AUE students

English tutors, who are university students (both Japanese and International), as well as overseas teachers, teach English to students who want to learn English and help them improve their English skills and cultivate effective study techniques.

Activity period: second semester: November – January

Hours per week: one (1) Venue: Campus or online

English tutors will be paid. English learners can participate free of charge.

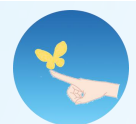

Voices from English tutors

- This tutoring experience helped me gain a deeper understanding of learners' challenges and effective instructional approaches, providing valuable insights that I can apply in my future career as a teacher.
- It was highly rewarding to see my student actively express their ideas in their own words while drawing on the example sentences I had prepared as a reference.

Voices from Learners

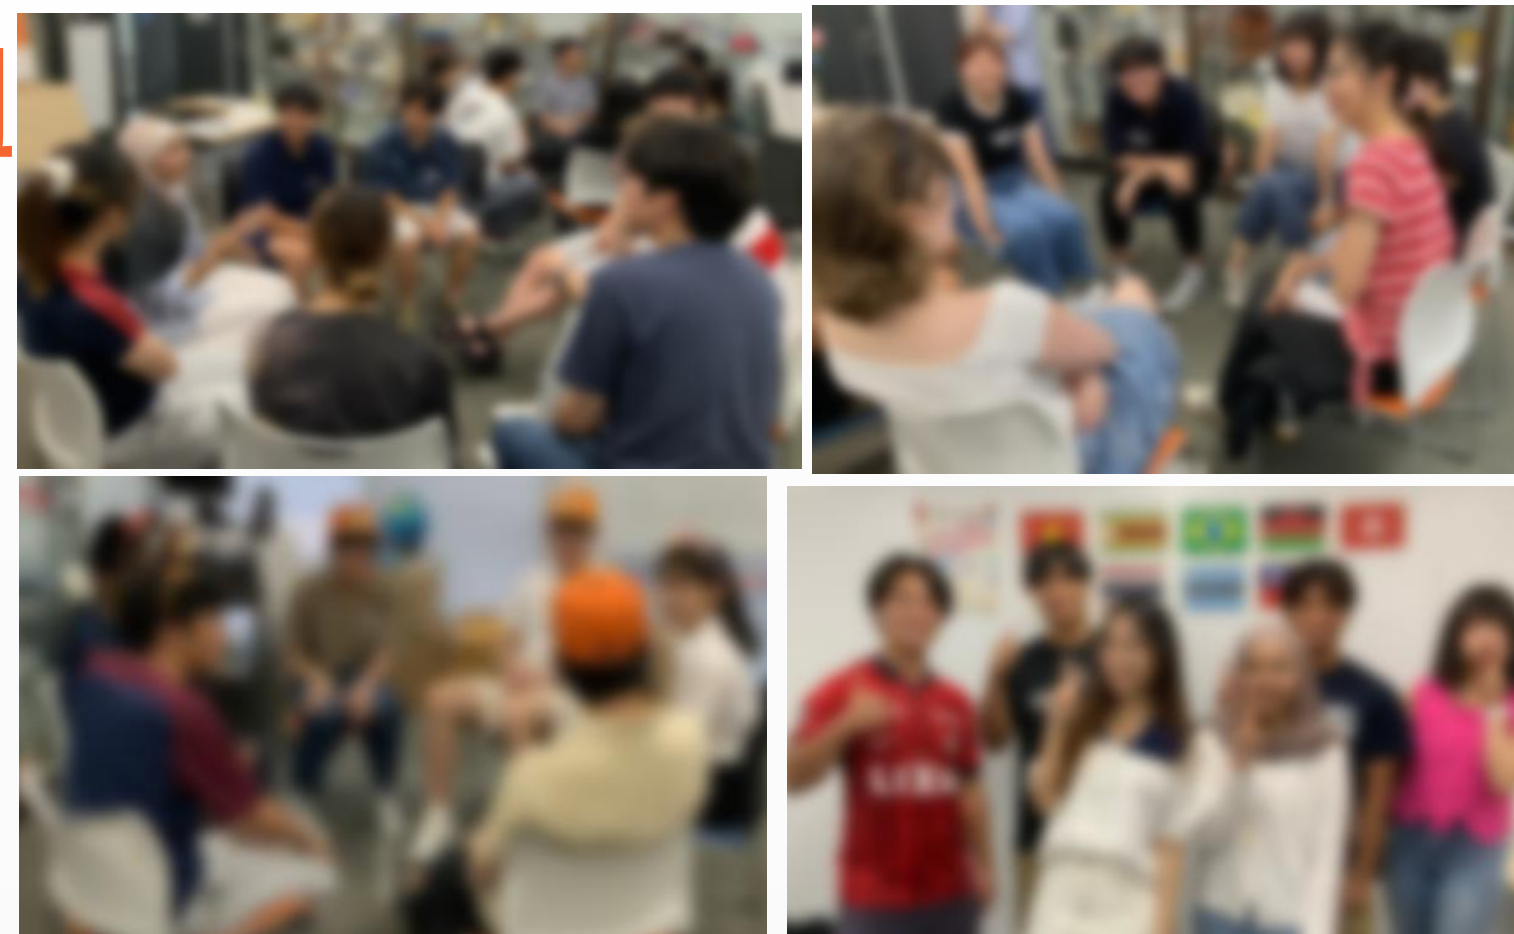

- I really appreciated being able to focus on learning that matched my needs and interests in each session. In addition, the speech activities helped me develop practical English communication skills.
- Having the opportunity to speak English once a week increased my motivation to study.

English Conversation Event 'Let's talk in English!'

Join us for a fun cultural exchange event!

International students and overseas teachers from AUE serve as leaders of this event and enjoy English conversation in groups on a variety of topics. Let's have fun and improve our English! Even if you're not confident in your English, everyone around you will support you, so there's nothing to worry about. We encourage you to give it a try.

Voices from Participants:

- Thanks to the warm and welcoming atmosphere created by the international students, I felt comfortable participating in conversations even when I struggled to express myself in English.
- Having the chance to speak English outside the classroom was a wonderful experience. It helped me recognize my current level of English and inspired me to work harder to improve my skills.

Voices from Facilitators:

- The learners were highly motivated and enthusiastic, making this a wonderful experience for me. Even when they did not know the right words, they always tried their best to communicate in English.
- I was particularly impressed by their willingness to communicate and their eagerness to actively participate in conversations. I greatly appreciated their positive attitude and effort throughout the program.
