I Number of students to be admitted

Program	Course	Admission processes	Number of students to be admitted
			Late February Examination
Program for Advanced Education Colleagues	Japanese-Style Education Course	General	A few positions
		For applicants from partner universities

- * “Partner university” means a university or an institute that holds an academic agreement with Aichi University of Education.
- * The Japanese-Style Education Course includes the enrollment capacity for the autumn admission to be implemented in the next academic year.
- * The total enrollment for the Program for Advanced Education Colleagues will be 30 students across the September Examination, October Examination (excluding the Clinical Psychology Course and Japanese-Style Education Course), early February Examination, and late February Examination.
- * The admission quota for the Program for Advanced Education Colleagues in the Late February Examination will be “a few,” combined with the quota for the Early February Examination.
If the quota is filled through the Early February Examination, successful candidates in the Late February Examination will be placed on a waiting list.

2 Qualifications

(1) General

Applicants must have foreign citizenship and have one of the following qualifications.

- ① Those who graduated from a university in Japan as an international student by March 2026.
- ② Those who have completed, or expect to graduate from 16 years of formal school education outside Japan by March 2026.
- ③ Applicants who were awarded, or are expected to be awarded by March 31, 2026, a degree equivalent to bachelor's by universities overseas or others (only which are comprehensively evaluated with their activities of educational research and so on by the bodies certified by their governments or organizations concerned, or separately designated by Ministry of Education, Culture, Sports, Science and Technology as equivalent) to complete the program which is more than 3 years (including to complete the equivalent programs by taking the correspondence course subjects in Japan, which are provided by the schools overseas).
- ④ Others who are recognized to be of equivalent standing as those specified in ① by individually screens for eligibility of Aichi University of Education. (→p. 9)

Note 1: Applicants for Japanese-Style Education Course (General admission process)
should consult the Educational Affairs and planning Division
(Email : support_ml@m.auecc.aichi-edu.ac.jp) beforehand. If there is no prior consultation, your application will not be accepted.

Note 2: Applicants falling under Qualification ④ must undergo a preliminary eligibility screening, which is described on p. 9.

(2) For applicants from partner universities

In addition to the requirement of (1), applicants must have all the following qualifications.

- ① Those who are currently enrolled at AUE's partner universities or those who have graduated from AUE's partner universities within 1 year.
- ② Those who have excellent academic records, and are recommended by the head of the organization to which the applicants belong (for example, the president of the university, the dean of the faculty, or the director of the department), who are responsible for recommending them as a prospective graduate student sought by the Admission Policies of the Graduate School, Aichi University of Education.

Preliminary Eligibility Screening for Applicants falling under category (1)④ (p.1)

Applicants with this qualification are requested to send the screening documents by post to the Admissions Division by Tuesday, February 3, 2026, so that preliminary eligibility screening can be carried out.

1 Required Documents for Preliminary Eligibility Screening

For details of necessary documents, ask at the Admissions Division.

2 Others

(1) The result of the preliminary eligibility screening will be mailed to each applicant by the start date of the period of application.

Those whose academic records are approved, if they choose to apply, are required to submit the application materials within the period of application printed on p.2.

(2) If the applicants fail to meet all the conditions by March 2026, their candidacy will be cancelled even after they pass the preliminary eligibility screening and the entrance examination.

(3) Applicants admitted under this eligibility requirement will be required to withdraw from the undergraduate program of the university in which they are currently enrolled. Therefore, please note that for national examinations or other qualifications that require university graduation as a condition, you will lose eligibility to take such examinations.
